

Summer School 2022

This is a free program that will be held at the Middle/High School.

Weight Room: Starting June 13th the weight room will be open to middle and high school students Monday-Friday, with the 7:00 AM and 10 AM sessions focused on high school students and 8:30 AM focused on middle school students. See the weight room page for dates and times.

Middle School Running Club: There will be two sessions—Session 1 in June from 8:30-9:30 AM and Session 2 in July from 3:00-4:00 PM. Students will go on a fun run and do some weightlifting/strength training. Students can also expect games and/or scavenger hunts! This is for students currently in grades 5-7. See sign up form due to the office June 10th.

High School Basketball Camp: June 6th-July 29th. Incoming HS and current HS students can join in basketball skills and drills. Students will learn the fundamentals of basketball and sharpen their skills as they work out from 8:00-10:00 am Monday-Friday. See sign up form due to the office June 2nd.

Credit Recovery: Students that are credit deficient can make up credits during the Summer starting Monday-Friday, 8 am to 3:20 pm, with half-hour off-campus lunch and breaks included. Start date: Monday, June 13th-the end of July. Air-conditioned rooms will be used. If you are interested please contact Mrs. Scallon or Mr. Harry.

High School Enrichment: June 13th-24th from 9:00-10:30 "Exploring Satire" Students will read and analyze Jonathan Swift's 1729 pamphlet "A Modest Proposal" as a model for satirizing social problems and write their own satirical solution to a problem in modern American society. See sign up form due to the office June 8th.

Tutoring: The dates for this session are August 1st-11th from 8:30-11:30 Monday-Thursday. This will be a review session where students can practice their math and reading skills and is a great opportunity for students to get a jump-start to the school year! See sign up form due to the office June 20th.

Football Camp: See sign up form due to the office June 8th.
